

Summer 2024 – Japan

Marlboro Township Youth Exchange Program

Would your child like to travel the World to explore and experience other cultures? They can travel to Japan or China as part of the Marlboro Township Youth Exchange Program!

These programs have been successfully opening a door for Marlboro students to foster a sense of global understanding by experiencing a new culture. Both programs are seeking Committee Members and volunteers to join them at any time.

Students Travel and Host

- Registration is open to Marlboro students for 13-18 years
- Travel to Japan for 2 weeks (July 20-August 10) AND Host Japanese students in their Marlboro home for 3-7 days (August 15-August 25)
- Must be a Marlboro resident
- Exact dates TBD (July/August)
- Optional to host only and not travel to Japan

Chaperones

- Registration is open to anyone who is interested in hosting 2 adult Japanese chaperones for 3-7 days
- Host Japanese chaperones by providing a bed and breakfast during their stay
- Registration is open for chaperones to travel with our group of Student Ambassadors representing the Marlboro Township
